Next Week's Technical Themes:

USD Resuming Outperformance:

A week where USD smoothed scores flattened out, as fresh improvement materialised and these positive themes continue alongside ranking levels ending the week 2nd within G10. Outperformance risks strengthened into the weekend, which looks set to continue during the coming week from a broader based perspective. See EURUSD and USDCAD comments, pages 7 and 8.

Gold – New Recovery Highs:

It has now been 3 weeks of strong performance in Gold a move that has now seen fresh closes above 2000.00 to again post new recovery highs. As such, positive themes continue for next week, with risks remaining for upside extension to 2021.80, Mid-May bounce failure, even 2074.00 May 2023 rejection level. See Gold chart, page 12.

Mid-Point Breached:

Continued S&P index selling pressure extended the decline materialising since July upside extremes, a move that has now closed under 4173.00. Equal to the mid-point of October 2022 to July 2023 strength, this move maintains potential to test 4052.50 deeper 62% level, even 3932.75 lows. See S&P weekly and daily charts, pages 13 and 14.

Chart of the Week

EURUSD Weekly: Chippy Consolidation Develops But Negative While Below 1.0690

Scorecard: Neutral Rankings EUR 3rd USD 2nd Weekly Trend: Downtrend Weekly Momentum: Recovering

Support:

- 1st – 1.0449, October 2023 low trade
- 2nd – 1.0203, 62% retrace Sep'22/Jul'23 upside
- 3rd – 1.0000, Psychological parity level

Resistance:

- 1st – 1.0690, Last week's failure high
- 2nd – 1.0765, 38% retrace Jul/Oct sell-off
- 3rd – 1.0862, Mid-point same move

- While a recovery move initially developed last week, this was held by first resistance, from which a rejection was seen to maintain downside potential over coming weeks.
- This keeps focus on 1.0449/522 March and October monthly lows, with risks for closing breaks to trigger further declines towards 1.0203, the 62% level.
- Weekly MACD trending is below its zero line so momentum crossing down at any point will be a fresh negative, alongside 1.0449 closing breaks.

Preferred Bias: While closes are seen below 1.0690 last week's high, potential is for limited bounces and continued pressure on 1.0449. Closing breaks will be a negative to expose 1.0203 longer term retracement, possibly further.

Alternative Bias: Closes above 1.0690 while not an outright positive, can see retests of 1.0765 first retracement resistance.

USDCAD Weekly: Downtrend Break Sees Upside, Opening Potential to 1.3972, Then 1.4263

Scorecard: Uptrend Rankings USD 2nd CAD 8th Weekly Trend: Uptrend Weekly Momentum: Positive

Support:

- 1st – 1.3724, Half latest upside move
- 2nd – 1.3579, 38% retrace Jul/Oct upside
- 3rd – 1.3486, Mid-point same move

Resistance:

- 1st – 1.3879, Last week's high trade
- 2nd – 1.3972, October 2022 upside extreme
- 3rd – 1.4263, April 2020 bounce failure

- The significant development here has been the successful closing break of the downtrend from October 2022, leaving activity since then as a positive continuation pattern.
- This opens scope for development of the bullish pattern since July lows, suggesting breaks above 1.3860 March 2023 extreme and on to 1.3972, possibly further to 1.4263.
- Weekly momentum has again crossed higher at the same time as MACD is above its zero line and average, often a fresh positive trigger.

Preferred Bias: While closes are seen above 1.3724 half latest upside, potential is for limited corrections and further strength. This can see 1.3860 March highs breached, opening scope to 1.3972 and on to 1.4263 April 2020 extremes if this gives way.

Alternative Bias: Closes below 1.3724 while not an outright negative, can see tests of 1.2557 first retracement support.
